

Food Costs bakground in next ten years

According to new report of FAO and OECD, the avrage cost of food materials will decrease in next 10 years. They have forecasted that the increase per hectar and declining of global demand for food will gradually decrease food costs. From 2015 to 2024 the prices of crude oil, fertilizers and energy inputs in agriculture sector will decrease, too.

No need legal ground for meat export

Deputy of Jihad Keshvarzi Ministry in Commerce affairs announced: No need to legal ground for meat export from Tir 22/ July 13. To facilitate the export of stall – fed animals, exporters have to act healthy and xuara-tine orders to next date, and no need any legal ground from Jihad – e – Keshavarzi ministry.

Iran and Netherlands Will Expand their Cooprations

IranandNetherlandsCooprations in agriculture sector was surveyed in a meeting between Jihad Keshavarzi Minister and Netherlands Embasador. Eng. Hojati emphasized on rapidity of both countries coopratiion specially on intensive cultures and greenhouses to produce flowers and vegetabels. Editorial: Hard volatile prices to annihilate Poultry industry

Some crops and poultry and egg are governmental products. But a battle in Producing these foods, not only treathens the Producers but also the capability and efficiency of every gocernment. Poutlry Producers must know that the government is sorry about this condition and try to prevail over it.

Government has tried to make a stability in inputs like soymeal, corn and Barley but this volatile in poultry industry is caused to other factors.

Expectaions after removing the sanctions

Auther belives that the Iran and 5+1 agreement about Iranian nuclear deal is more important than the SALT 1 and 2 between USA and Soviet Union.

The negotiations during 23 months showed that diplomatic behavior is preferable than treathen by annihilating war. After removing the sanctions Iranians expect a great change in their life, but at the other side, the big companies and monopolies want to act like the past years. People are pessimistic bout this challenge and the government responsible must be very careful about the future situation.

“Agriculture expanding motor” and its challenges

A Bank is a Bank, not a money box, and the Bank Keshacarzi is not an exception. Someodies think that by the reasion of belonging of this Bank to government it has to doall of the government policies. These individuals can not claim who are the agriculture sector supporters.

Nearly, all of the farmers believe that the Bank keshavarzi is the only supporter to them. To insure the agricultural crops against natural damages, Providing enough money for buying agricultural machinaries, in addition to comman banking affairs. So, To bear more pressure To this Bank it will put in Unbalanced condition.
